

February 2014
Energy Isles
project formed 63 turbines

June 2018
First public exhibitions
50 turbines

February 2019
Second public
exhibitions
29 turbines

May 2019
Application submitted
29 turbines

October 2019
Statkraft announced
as development partner

August 2020
Supplementary Environmental
Information submitted
23 turbines, up to 200m

April 2018
Community Liaison
Group established
7 meetings held

November 2018
Suppliers' Day
in Lerwick with HIE
100 attendees, Shetland
Renewable Development
Network (SRDN) established

February 2019
Suppliers' Day in Yell
16 companies attended

July 2019
Shared ownership discussions
with Local Energy Scotland

February 2020
Third public exhibitions
23 turbines

September 2021
Supplementary Environmental
Information submitted
18 turbines, up to 180m

